CSR actions that support the society by Sarantis Group through SANITAS

This Christmas the Group further strengthens the NGO's "Boroume" mission for the 5th consecutive time and actively supports socially vulnerable groups

Sarantis Group, one of the largest FMCG multinational companies with significant international presence, leading brands and strategic partnerships, remains faithful to its commitment to support the Greek society through actions of love and offering. This Christmas, the Group through its brand SANITAS supports the needs of the non-profit organization "Boroume" aiming to reduce food waste, so that no portion of food is wasted, making these holidays more accessible and humane for all.

Through this CSR initiative, Sarantis Group and SANITAS will cover the needs of organizations aimed at socially excluded and vulnerable social groups. Specifically, the Group will offer through its brand SANITAS for the 5th consecutive time 100,000 portions of food & over 6,000 food packaging products at the Galini Foundation, which serves 600 people daily through free meals service, as well as at the Social Kitchen of Agia Paraskevi, which takes care of the needs of 120 people every day.

This new CSR action of Sarantis Group follow and support the social offer of SANITAS, at a time when the need to support vulnerable groups and strengthen their standard of living remains crucial. Sarantis Group will continue its CSR activity, aimed at improving the quality of life of all and at expressing social solidarity, through SANITAS or even other brands of the Group's portfolio.
