Sarantis Group Supports the Sikiarideio Foundation and the Ilion Center for the Care of Unaccompanied Minors

Sarantis Group, remaining true to its long-standing commitment to responsible entrepreneurship and the strengthening of social cohesion, has made two important donations to organizations carrying out vital work for vulnerable social groups.

Within this framework, the Group supported the Sikiarideio Foundation, an organization with a long-established presence in the field of special education and vocational training for people with intellectual disabilities, by donating products from the AVA, SANITAS, FINO, NOXZEMA, and AFROSO brands. The donation covers daily hygiene and personal care needs, supporting the uninterrupted operation of an organization that plays a crucial role in the education, social empowerment, and dignified living of its beneficiaries.

“The support of Sarantis Group is a substantial boost to our work. It allows us to continue our efforts to create a safe and supportive environment for our students,” stated a representative of the Sikiarideio Foundation.

At the same time, Sarantis Group responded to a request from the Ilion Reception Center for Unaccompanied Minors, which is operated by the International Organization for Migration (IOM) with funding from TAMEY – Migration and Home Affairs Funds and co-financing from the European Union.

In this context, the Group donated sunscreen, facial cleansers, moisturizers, and first aid supplies. The facility hosts 30 unaccompanied girls aged 12 to 18, who come from particularly vulnerable backgrounds and require a stable and supportive environment that promotes health, self-confidence, and overall well-being.

This donation makes a meaningful contribution to meeting essential personal hygiene and care needs, while supporting the broader work of the Center, which includes housing, psychosocial support, education, and social integration activities.

“The contribution of Sarantis Group has a direct and practical impact on the daily lives of the girls we host. It is a meaningful act of support that reinforces our efforts to offer
