Polipak Sp. z o.o., Sarantis Group subsidiary in Poland, has once again been distinguished in the prestigious "Forbes Diamonds" ranking

Polipak Sp. z o.o., Sarantis Group subsidiary in Poland, has once again been distinguished in the prestigious "Forbes Diamonds" ranking!

The Group's subsidiary, Polipak, is one of the four production units of Sarantis Group and a pioneer in the production of garbage bags. Through its continuous investments allocated in modernized mechanical equipment and in its Research and Development laboratory, Polipak has achieved to increase the percentage of recycled plastic in its exceptional products by using patented technologies.

Its contribution to the Group is of great significance as Polipak supports the production of advanced products which are distinguished for their quality and durability, as well as for their highly functional and ecological character.

Forbes Diamonds is an annual ranking of companies that have increased their value the fastest in recent years. For the valuation of Forbes Diamonds 2022, official data from the past three years were used, including: sales level, net profit, value of fixed assets, inventory level, accounts receivable and value of investment expenditures.

Receiving this award at such an adverse time of the COVID-19 pandemic is a further confirmation of the extraordinary determination and ambition of the entire team at Polipak, while confirms Sarantis Group successful strategic plan.

This is an important distinction for the Group, since it reflects the Group's continuous efforts for excellence across its countries throughout its operational journey and reaffirms its remarkable profitable growth, as a result of its ability to grow and prosper despite the adverse business environment.
